THESPIAN MATTERS.

The amusement season this year promises to be an unusually interesting one, and the APPEAL is informed that Memphis will enjoy all the best attractions that are to be had. The Theater will open the latter part of Sep-tember with a good negro minstrel troupe. Mr. Frank Gray will continue as manager and Mr. Robert Young will officiate in the box office. There seems just now to be an awakening all over the South. The good awakening all over the South. In good crops and the prospect of a fine yield of cotton have brightened up business, and it is with confidence that the merchant looks forward to the fall trade. In this general awakening, the gaunt form of hard times will gradually vanish into thin air and renewed life will be infused into every branch of trade. Naturally one would expect the of trade. Naturally one would expect the Theater to come in for its share of prosperity, nd doubtless it will.

The Juvenile Opera Clauses. Those children and young ladies who are desirous of taking part in the operetta of Cisiderella, and wish to avail themselves of a thorough musical training under the direc-tions of Mrs. Charles Benton, of New York, who has now a considerable reputation in this peculiar branch of instruction, are requested to call at Mozart Hall between 10 o'clock s.m. and 4 p.m. There will not be more than 300 membership cards issued. The operetta will be the second attraction at Lenbrie's Theater for the regular fall season.

Mr. Charles Wyndham will arrive in New York about the middle of October, and appears October 30th. Maggie Mitchell will produce her new play, Elsa, September 2d, at the Park Theater, New York. Mr. Lawrence Barrett will begin his dramatic season on August 21st, appearing at Mile. Adele Cornalba has been engaged as first dancer of the Norcross Opera Company, and she will appear at the Globe Theater, Boston, in The Merry War. Miss Pateman, late of Mr. Booth's com-pany, has bought the drama of Oddile for the British provinces, and she will presently set forth on a starring tour of England and Scotland with that piece,

Mr. Boucicault intends to return to America a little before Christmas, and will reappear at the Boston Museum. It is prob-able that he will repeat, in Boston and New York, the lecture on the "Art of Acting" that he recently delivered in London at Mr. Irving's theater. A Clear and Plain Statement of the Re-

"The poultry-fanciers on Vance street, in the neighborhood of Hernando, have suffered considerable loss of their hens and chickens during the last two months, and of late they now let me call your attention to some figures. The reports of the officers of the road for the year ending June 30th, show the gross earnings to have been $1,133,072 61; total expenses, $1,079,791 48; interest on bouded debt, $295,250; interest on floating debt, $42,289 39—from which it will be seen that, with the interest added to the expenses, makes a total of $1,417,304 87, heing a deficit of $101,611 26, which is added to the floating debt. The management (the lessees) claim, however, that $197,750 went to the betterment of the road, which, of course, improves the property to that amount, and makes it that much more valuable; but, The poultry-fanciers on Vance street, i course, improves the property to that amount, and makes it that much more valuable; but, on the other hand, $137,000 of the carnings were derived from the sale of old iron. Thus you see, that with a deficit of that sort accumulating every year, it would not take long for the stock to waste itself away, and the stockholders would get no hing."
